St. Nicholas for 1874.
A Book for Boys and Girls.
Of this book CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER writes:
"In the bound volume of ST. NICHOLAS, with its glory of red and gold, we have a permanent addition to the literature of the young. Never before has so much literary and artistic talent coopered in the service of children. It is a national educator of their taste and of their character and courage. I do not see how it can be better, and if the children don't like it I think it will be time to begin to change the kind of children in this country."

St. Nicholas for 1875.
The prospectus of the second volume shows that there is to be no falling off, but an increase in its literary and pictorial attractions. Among other attractive features are
Two Splendid Serial Stories,
"THE YOUNG SURVEYOR,"
by J. T. KNOWLEDGE, author of the Jack Hasty Story; a "KITE COUSINS," by Louisa M. Alcott, author of Little Women &c.
The peculiar features of ST. NICHOLAS, which we conclude so largely to its popularity, will keep up with a gift:
Short and easy stories in FRENCH, GERMAN and LATIN for translation, will appear occasionally; while JACK-IN-THE-PULPIT, THE LITTLE RED BOY, and THE KIDNAPED INDIAN, will continue the series of departmental and instructive papers on Practical Subjects.
MR. BARRETT and others will attend to the settlement of Home Entertainment, Tales and Poems.
New writers in addition to our present large corps of contributors, will give young people all sorts of POEMS, JINGLES, STORIES, TALES AND PAPERS ON HISTORY, GEOGRAPHY, SCIENCE, ADVENTURE, NATURAL HISTORY, OUT-DOOR AND IN-DOOR GAMES, JOKE-N-GIRLS' HANDICRAFT, AND ENTERTAINING LITERATURE. POPULAR SCIENCE, with nearly startling facts throughout the volume.
Price $3.00 a year, but up to January last, we offer the TWELVE numbers for the same amount as usual, or actually 90¢. The year's volume bound in red and gold, will be sent, charged for, $4.00.
The year's subscription and twelve back numbers, $5.00. One year's subscription and volume bound as above, sent, CHARGED FOR, $6.00.
All Postage will be Prepaid by us.

A Substitute for Quinine
For years, quinine was regarded as the only specific for malarious diseases and immense quantities of the drug were annually consumed throughout the western country, more particularly along the river bottoms and adjoining low lands.
With the fall months malarial in all its varied forms stalks on an epidemic throughout the country, and whole districts are prostrated with malarial fever, the entire population shaking with ague. Heretofore, quinine was regularly resorted to, but its use is frequently failed to effect a cure, it invariably damaged the stomach, produced nausea, vertigo and fugitive pains in the head to such an extent that months elapsed before the system recovered from its effects. Those objections to its use were so marked that the reduction of Meibner's Herb Bitters was hailed as a triumph in medicine. Infinitely more potent in its beneficial effects than quinine, it possesses none of the demerits of that drug, is free of nauseating, it tones and invigorates the stomach, and gently expelling the malarious humors, it induces the appetite and facilitates digestion, thus rendering the system stronger, and better fitted to resist the attacks of malarial fever. In fact, a judicious use of Meibner's Herb Bitt is now the only way of preventing the recurrence of this disease, even in those who have never passed an autumn without malarial fever. An extract now of twenty years proves it to be the greatest ANTI-MALARIAL known to medical science.
There are, perhaps, no diseases so subject to climatic changes as affections of the Kidneys. Hundreds of our farmers; mechanics also laboring men, strong and hardy in all other respects, who, which, if permitted to continue, will be a source of suffering, experience a fit desire to possess relief, pain during its passage and frequent vomiting in the flow. These are manifestations resulting from some strain or very light (one or two years ago), and aggravated by every change in the weather. Every slight cold finds its way to this organ, and the patient is immediately attended to the disease becomes chronic, and the once strong man a miserable wreck. Meibner's Herb Bitters is the only cure. As a secret now of twenty years, it has a peculiar tendency to the kidneys, stimulating them to healthy action, and removing the cause, prevents the formation of brick roads deposits, which, if permitted to continue, will be a source of suffering, experience a fit desire to possess relief, pain during its passage and frequent vomiting in the flow.
